

Calling All Adelfphia Cowboys & Cowgirls! Wanted: Wild West Readers

The Scholastic Book Fair is coming to our school!

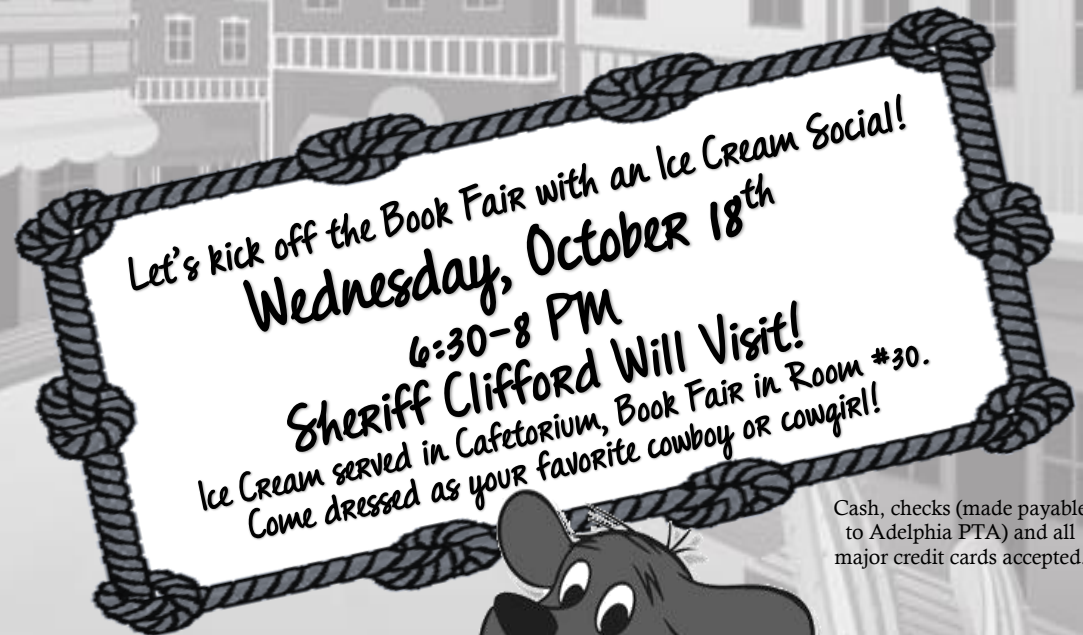

Wednesday, October 18th,
Thursday, October 19th
and Friday, October 20th

Adelfphia students are invited to shop the Book Fair with their class on their scheduled day and time. As an added treat, parents/guardians can shop the book fair with their children too! Please see the attached form so that you can RSVP to our exciting event. Please understand that younger siblings may not visit the school while you are volunteering/attending special events at Adelfphia School. This presents a safety concern and we appreciate your understanding and cooperation. Thank you!

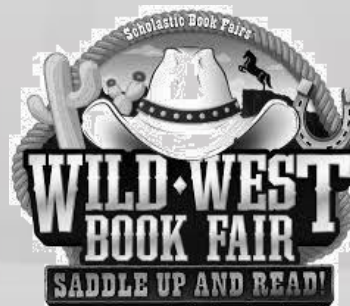

Shop Online too!

See something in the catalog, but can't find it at the book fair?
We can order it for you or you can shop online too!
www.scholastic.com/bookfairs. Be sure to mention Adelfphia School when placing your online order. Payment must be received and your book(s) will be sent home with your child when they arrive at school.
